

THE SENTINEL.

Daily, 87c; Weekly, $4.50; Monthly, $12.50. JERMAIN & BRIGHTMAN, Publishers and Proprietors.

THURSDAY MORNING, OCT. 25, 1860.

To the Public. Every business man who consults his own interest, will do well to consult the Sentinel.

The Buchanan Administration. The news of yesterday, formerly a Buchanan, but now a Douglas organ, gives currency to the following statement:

That is a very good story to tell; only no body believes it. We should like to know what there is of "the party," outside of the Buchanan or Breckinridge men?

It is too good a story to tell; only no body believes it. We should like to know what there is of "the party," outside of the Buchanan or Breckinridge men?

THE PARTISAN OF PRESIDENT BUCHANAN. A man who is a partisan of President Buchanan, and who is a partisan of President Buchanan, and who is a partisan of President Buchanan.

VALUING MONEY. It is a growing impression in Wall street, writes the New York correspondent to the Buffalo Commercial Advertiser, that money will go a begging, by the last of the month at 5 percent, and the impression is shared by private lenders.

WISCONSIN CONVENTION MONEY. A heavy counterfeiting business appears to have been carried on recently upon the Bank of Kokomo, Wis. The Louisville Courier says that a woman has been arrested in that city for passing it, and that she had her hair shaved off, and a wig made for her head.

ACCIDENT.—The New Lisbon Republican says that as Sheriff Saxton and N. S. Francis, the Democratic nominee for District Attorney, were returning to Lisbon from the mass meeting held at Mauston, a week ago, their horses slipped, upon the buggy, and threw Mr. Francis out to a stump.

THE ALBANY STATEMAN SAYS, a novel plan has been adopted by Doddworth's Band to test the political preferences of an audience, by the use of tickets. At a recent concert in Twiddle Hall, the tickets showed the following vote for Presidential candidates:

THE CRACKED MONSTER IN A NEW ROLE.

A Jesuit, Hubbard, tries the Cleopatra Dodge in his life. From the Chicago Journal.

The inmates of the Fort Olives were thrown into great confusion and consternation yesterday afternoon, by a series of vigorous and agonizing screams proceeding from one of the hall ways of the building.

DEAR WIFE.—I must tell you I do love you with all my heart, and not only that, but I love you with all my heart, and not only that, but I love you with all my heart.

Back for the Other—All for the Cause!

This should be the motto of every citizen date on the Republican Electoral, Congressional, Legislative and County tickets, throughout the State. The magnitude of the issues involved, in the coming election, demand of all true Republicans that, ignoring all personal claims, or local considerations, or individual preferences, they devote their whole efforts and energies to the good of the cause. There can be no possible question as to the necessity of this. It is the great contest of the 6th of November, stand all together. Let us vote as one man. Let there be no scattering fire from our well-ordered ranks. Our victory would lose a portion of its lustre if any Republican candidate, after fighting the good fight with all zeal and energetic, were struck down by treachery, or survived to help a "traitor." Let our friends, everywhere, then, face their duty steadily and any and every divided vote weakens, by so much, the grand Republican aggregate.

See to it, faithful Republicans of Wisconsin!

We do not need a candidate that is pulled out of the State by the Congress in 1861, of all the Republican candidates and of some other! IN THAT SIGN WE SHALL CONQUER!

John F. Potter.
